Animal Handling Gloves (Large Animals)

Features

A complete integrated protection system for animal handlers and their subjects. To safeguard personnel while handling animals, Lomir manufactures a complete range of handling equipment designed and fabricated for flexibility, comfort and safety during long periods of wear.

No other company offers such a range of sizes; Small Medium, Large and X-Large. Available as pairs or singles.

- Leather Gauntlets - Full fingered, full length gauntlet. Glove section made from 100% cowhide; elbow length cuffs made from split grain cowhide. Ruggedly constructed with internal seams throughout for optimum protection and durability. Kevlar lining for security while maintaining manual dexterity. Available in two cuff lengths.
- Leather Doublers - For the highest level of protection, a 100% cowhide doubler is available with heavy duty snaps for attachment over the handling gauntlets. Full thumb and index finger closure.
- Kevlar® Arm Protectors - Arm protectors made from 100% fine-knit Kevlar® with sewn-in reinforcement. Designed to be worn either on their own or beneath a pair of animal handling gloves.
